The Minden Speech Team is halfway through their regular season. The team has competed at four meets so far against strong competition.

The Speech season kicked off the first weekend back from Winter Break with a meet at Adams Central. The Whippets had three events earn medals with Lily Van Dusen and Chase Villars earning third in varsity duet acting, Analisia Mendoza receiving sixth in novice poetry, and Alaina Suchsland placing sixth in novice informative.

Travelling to Grand Island January 13 for the large CNFL #1 meet, the Minden team gained some valuable feedback and grew more confident in their events. Results from the meet were Jianna Sorensen, tenth place varsity persuasive; Camryn Melroy, first place novice poetry; and Mary Braun and Karla Madriz, eighth place novice duet acting.
