The Wilcox-Hildreth Falcons volleyball team had its 2017 season come to an end in the Class D2-8 subdistrict semifinals held in Bertrand on Oct. 30.

The fourth-seeded Lady Falcons started with a win over the fifth-seeded Eustis-Farnam Knights in the opening round of the D2-8 only to run into the top seed, Axtell Lady Cats.

Axtell would defeat W-H in three sets to end their season with a record of 4 wins and 24 losses.

The Falcons started with a straight set win over the Knights by scores of 25-16, 25-10 and 25-13 to advance to the semifinal.
